The New Home Co. held its annual Interval House Golf Tournament on Oct. 6 at the Mission Viejo Country Club. The event raised more than $275,000, a new record for the event.

Funds benefit Interval House, which aids victims of abuse, abandonment and homelessness.

Aliso Viejo-based New Home is Interval House's main charitable partner. Overall, it's raised $2 million to support the organization's efforts to provide crisis intervention and assistance to victims of domestic violence and people at risk for abuse, as well as to help provide solutions to homelessness.
